

Starter 1

1. Lesson goal

The students will be able to write basic sentence structures in accordance with understanding and writing paragraphs. All the essential grammar parts will be taught concurrently as the students build up their sentence and paragraph structures with weekly homework checked and revised by the tutor. At the end of semester, the students will be prepared, when successfully accomplished the course work, for the next level of writing an essay.

2. Aspects of lesson

The lecture is rather motivating and enthusiastic because it is not only focused on learning grammar and sentence structures, but also providing a way of how to build up process of writing for well-structured paragraph.

Unlike other lectures, the students will have more opportunity to be checked and informed by the tutor individually for their homework and lesson.

3. Attendance

It is crucial not to miss the class more than 6 times for the whole course.

4. Homework

Homework will be given in every week with various topics chosen individually by the students and it will be checked and revised by the tutor over the weekend.

5. Evaluation

The students will be evaluated on whether they pass or fail the course with their attendance and academic achievement.

6. Course Outline

	Day1	Day2	Day3	Day4
Week1	Understanding sentence basics	Understanding sentence basics	Understanding sentence basics	Understanding paragraph basics
Week2	Understanding paragraph basics	Understanding paragraph basics	Writing about the present	Writing about the present
Week3	Writing about the present	Writing about the past	Writing about the past	Writing about the past
Week4	Describing actions	Describing actions	Describing actions	Writing about the future
Week5	Writing about the future	Writing about the future	Writing complex sentences with adjective clauses	Writing complex sentences with adjective clauses
Week6	Writing complex sentences with adjective clauses	Pulling it all together and preparing for more	Pulling it all together and preparing for more	Pulling it all together and preparing for more

Writing 1

1. Lesson goal

The students will be able to write basic sentence structures in accordance with understanding and writing paragraphs. All the essential grammar parts will be taught concurrently as the students build up their sentence and paragraph structures with weekly homework checked and revised by the tutor. At the end of semester, the students will be prepared, when successfully accomplished the course work, for the next level of writing an essay.

2. Aspects of lesson

The lecture is rather motivating and enthusiastic because it is not only focused on learning grammar and sentence structures, but also providing a way of how to build up process of writing for well-structured paragraph.

Unlike other lectures, the students will have more opportunity to be checked and informed by the tutor individually for their homework and lesson.

3. Attendance

It is crucial not to miss the class more than 6 times for the whole course.

4. Homework

Homework will be given in every week with various topics chosen individually by the students and it will be checked and revised by the tutor over the weekend.

5. Evaluation

The students will be evaluated on whether they pass or fail the course with their attendance and academic achievement.

6. Course Outline

	Day1	Day2	Day3	Day4
Week1	Understanding sentence basics	Understanding sentence basics	Understanding sentence basics	Understanding paragraph basics
Week2	Understanding paragraph basics	Understanding paragraph basics	Writing about the present	Writing about the present
Week3	Writing about the present	Writing about the past	Writing about the past	Writing about the past
Week4	Describing actions	Describing actions	Describing actions	Writing about the future
Week5	Writing about the future	Writing about the future	Writing complex sentences with adjective clauses	Writing complex sentences with adjective clauses
Week6	Writing complex sentences with adjective clauses	Pulling it all together and preparing for more	Pulling it all together and preparing for more	Pulling it all together and preparing for more

Writing 2

1. Lesson goal

The students will be able to write basic paragraph structures in accordance with understanding and writing essays. All the essential grammar parts will be taught concurrently as the students build up their sentence, paragraph and essay structures with weekly homework checked and revised by the tutor. At the end of semester, the students will be prepared, when successfully accomplished the course work, for the wider range of writing an essay.

2. Aspects of lesson

The lecture is rather motivating and enthusiastic because it is not only focused on learning paragraph and essay structures, but also providing a way of how to build up process of writing for well-structured essay. Unlike other lectures, the students will have more opportunity to be checked and informed by the tutor individually for their homework and lesson.

3. Attendance

It is crucial not to miss the class more than 6 times for the whole course.

4. Homework

Homework will be given in every week with various topics chosen individually by the students and it will be checked and revised by the tutor over the weekend.

5. Evaluation

The students will be evaluated on whether they pass or fail the course with their attendance and academic achievement.

6. Course Outline

	Day1	Day2	Day3	Day4
Week1	Meeting people and asking information	Describing different occupations	Describe positive and negative aspects of occupations	Talking about daily routine and describing daily life
Week2	Identify possessions	Ask and give personal travel information	Share special travel tips with others	Give a recipe and order a meal
Week3	Describe activities	Talk about favorite activities	Discuss past vacations	Exchange information about vacations
Week4	Talk about personal communication	Describe characteristics and qualities	Talk about plans	Discuss long and short term plans
Week5	Make comparisons	Evaluate quality and value	Give advice on healthy habits	Compare life styles
Week6	Talk about today's chores	Talk about personal success	Interview for a job	Talk about managing your money

